

Lifelong Learning

Moderator: Kathy D'Antoni,
Vice Chancellor Community &
Technical College System of WV

Lifelong Learning

This session will look at the creative worker concept of lifelong learning and the offerings in WV.

We will discuss what needs are being addressed and opportunities for filling holes in the lifelong continuum to produce more citizens with college degrees and New Economy skills.

Who Are You People?

- Name
- Job Title
- Organization
- What do you really do

create

Define Lifelong Learning

- How does your organization define life-long learning?
- How do you personally define it?

create

Motivations

- How do we motivate people to want to learn new skills, get a new degree, etc?

create

Programs

- What lifelong learning programs does your organization offer?
- What about plans for future programs?

Gaps & Holes

- Looking at all the offerings in WV where do we have gaps?
- How do we support people that want to continue learning their entire life?

create

Learning Czar

- You are king, oops, queen of learning ... ideally what should we have in place?
- What is the ideal future state of lifelong learning?

create

Mayor

- We want to attract and nurture creative workers in our community
- How would you sell our lifelong learning options to potential businesses or people?

creative

New Economy

- They say that the knowledge for a college degree changes every 2 years (or less)
- How do we help people to keep re-training themselves in WV?

Panel Questions

- Each of you can ask the rest of the panel (or audience) a question?
- Who wants to go first?

Q&A

Questions from the audience ...

create

Lifelong Learning Panel

- Kathy D'Antoni, Vice Chancellor Community & Technical College System
- Mary Beth Bush, Director of Corporate/Community Education WVU-Parkersburg
- Lisa Hatcher, Director of Marketing Mountain State University
- Debrah Varner, Office of Adult Education and Workforce Development